Rachel Leah Williams Busse
In The Presence of Jesus

Dear friends,

Most of you already know by now that our little girl entered into the presence of Jesus at 3:33pm, Tuesday afternoon, January 9, 2024. She fought a long, hard battle for 22 months with breast cancer and interstitial lung disease. Everyone that knew her, and had anything to do with her at all, said that they had never seen anyone with as much fight in them as Rachel had. But now the fight is over, and her victory has been won. She is no longer in pain. She no longer has to live, every day, with the reality that end of her existence in this world was a constantly looming presence. She no longer has to experience anxiety concerning the end of her life, because it has now faded into the reality of eternal life in the presence of God. So, we invite you to join us in rejoicing that Rachel is now experiencing total peace and total joy.

Her Celebration of Life will take place this Saturday, January 13 at 1:00pm at our home church, Sharon Baptist Church; 3514 Cravens Rd; Savannah, TN 38372. It will be preceded by a time of visitation from 11:00am to 1:00pm. The service will be live streamed on the Sharon Baptist Church Facebook page, on the website (sbcsavannah.org), and on the Sharon Baptist Church app.

We will be slightly delayed in handling end of year donation receipts because of needing a little time to regroup and rest. We are sorry if this causes any inconvenience. Thank you for your prayers and love.

Yours in the Gospel,

Shad and Sheila

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

*O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?
I Corinthians 15:53-55*
