Christmas Cards, a Stroke, and a Song

Every year Sheila and I look forward to picking out "just the right" Christmas cards to send to you, our beloved friends, with Christmas greetings and gratitude for all you have done throughout the year(s) to help keep us and the ministry team on the move with the message of Jesus. We love picking them out, writing personalized messages on them, and even hand addressing the envelopes. But, this year, for the first time in nearly fifty years, we are prevented from doing that due to an unexpected interruption in Sheila's health. Four weeks ago, on November 18, she had a stroke that was classified as "mild" in that it was confined to a small area in her brain. It did, however, cause numbness on the right side of her face and in her right hand. The numbness in her face is improving, and she is slowly regaining control of her hand in spite of persistent numbness. At this point, it is still very difficult for her to write. She can do it, but it is slow and tiring. So for that reason, we decided to forego cards this year. She is working hard on getting "back to normal" and would very much appreciate your prayers for her progress.

We have an appointment at Semmes Murphy Neurological Clinic in Memphis on January 5 for further evaluation. The GOOD news is that she can still sing! She thought maybe she would not be able to because the stroke also affected the muscles in her throat. But, miraculously, just two and a half weeks later (Dec. 7) she sang a solo in our Christmas musical at church with more power than she has had in years!! It was AMAZING! It was as if God said, "I am not limited by a stroke, Sheila – and, by MY grace, neither are you!" GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST!!

Millions Find the Real Meaning of Christmas

We will be sending out a newsletter/update in early January with a statistical report on all God has done through the SWEA/WGTT ministry team in 2025. But, for the moment, let me just share with you that as of the close of November, the teams completed over 25,000 evangelistic events, resulting in over 21 MILLION people finding the REAL MEANING of Christmas as they received the Lord Jesus into their hearts. So again, we say GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST - GREAT THINGS HE HAS DONE!!

Merry Christmas to You All!

Once again, Sheila and I, and all the Team, want to wish you all a Spirit-filled, Christ-centered, and very Merry Christmas! May it be filled with love, peace, joy, and opportunity for lifting Jesus up so that all can see the Reason, The REAL REASON we all celebrate.
